Dear Fellow Arizonans,

It's no easy task to find useful information about the candidates' positions on important policy issues. To assist you – the Arizona voter – in finding credible, objective information on candidates for federal and state offices, Center for Arizona Policy publishes this nonpartisan Voter Guide. This guide gives you straightforward answers, helping you determine which candidates best represent your values.

At Center for Arizona Policy, we see how the happenings in Washington, D.C., and at the state Legislature affect the everyday lives of Arizonans. That's why we work to protect and defend the family by influencing policy, communicating truth, and empowering families. You can learn more about our work at azpolicy.org.

Please take time to share the Voter Guide with your family, friends, neighbors, and your church. Encourage everyone you know to be an informed voter, and visit azvoterguide.com to find out how you can make a difference in the 2010 elections!

Standing for Arizona families,

Cathi

Cathi Herrod, Esq.
President

What is the August Primary Election about?

The Primary Election decides which candidates will represent each political party in the November General Election. In October, watch for an updated edition of this Voter Guide for the General Election.

Is the 2010 Voter Guide Democrat or Republican?

Neither. It is factual, impartial, and nonpartisan. Every candidate in the covered races was treated equally and had the same opportunity to respond to the questions.

Who paid for the 2010 Voter Guide?

Concerned Arizonans dedicated to responsible citizenship have donated to make this publication available. No candidate or political party paid for any part of this guide.

Are you endorsing specific candidates?

No. This guide is a nonpartisan educational resource provided as a public service. No candidates are endorsed.

Why do some candidates not respond?

We don't know. All candidates were provided the same opportunity to respond to the survey questions. For candidates who declined to respond, we've provided the candidate's contact information made available by the Arizona Secretary of State.

Support the 2010 Voter Guide

This guide would not be possible without the generous support of individuals around our state. If you would like to make a tax-deductible donation to continue this valuable work, you can call 602.424.2525 or visit azpolicy.org. While there, sign up for free email updates on issues critical to your family.
